Port of Progreso summer escape...

Welcome to the Port of Progreso, where exciting new attractions await! Located on the stunning Yucatan Peninsula, this vibrant destination is buzzing with the introduction of amazing new products that promise unforgettable experiences.

If your main goal is relaxation, we present the best Beach Club options. In the midst of the current high temperatures, these places suggested by the port tour operators are the perfect oasis to beat the heat, relax and enjoy refreshing cocktails and delicious cuisine overlooking the sea.

We are very excited to share the good news: the approval of financial resources for the Port of Progreso expansion project has been given, and a substantial initial amount has been allocated.

Additionally, we were happy to welcome the naval training ship Simón Bolívar to Yucatan.

We are sending a warm welcome to everyone in the cruise industry, so get ready to create cherished memories in the Port of Progreso. Enjoy this 23rd Newsletter edition and write to us with your comments.

Port of Progreso News

THE EXPANSION PROJECT IS MOVING FORWARD

Local authorities in Yucatan have been working tirelessly towards updating the port facilities, and their dedication has finally paid off. After months of extensive negotiations and efforts, an approval of initial amount has been designated for the improvement project for the Port of Progreso. This momentous achievement marks the beginning of a new chapter in the port's development, offering increased opportunities for trade and tourism.

All the steps in this process will be made public as they become relevant, ensuring transparency and involvement of all stakeholders. Join us as we embark on a journey toward the future.

SAIL TRAINING VESSEL VISIT

Port of Progreso welcomed the Venezuelan sail training vessel, Simon Bolivar, from June 5th to June 9th. Mexican and Venezuelan naval personnel took the opportunity to strengthen relations between both nations and participate in a welcome ceremony with the presence of the Venezuelan ambassador.

This ship opened its gates to the local people for visits and received 1,751 people spread throughout its week-long stay.

ELADIO'S BAR & RESTAURANT

Featuring an abundant variety of delicious complimentary snacks that accompany each round of perfectly chilled drinks, a menu highlighting seafood and the most famous Yucatecan dishes prepared with the recipes handed down from our chichi (grandma), Eladio's has by far the most fun atmosphere. All services are available and the visit is hosted by our friends at Total Gusto.

Columpios Island

Welcome to the stunning new tourist attraction on Yucatan's north coast, just 20 minutes from the Port of Progreso. Prepare to be amazed by its captivating landscape—a collection of small islands, islets, sandbars, and mangroves, embraced by shimmering waters ranging from transparent to turquoise, with hints of mint. Natural channels gracefully distribute the pristine seawater, creating a picturesque setting.

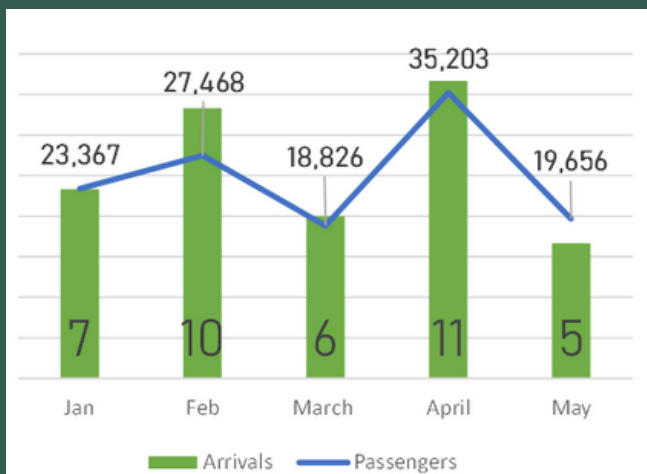

Immerse yourself in this aquatic wonderland by swimming, snorkeling, or kayaking through the meandering channels. Discover the vibrant marine life and be enchanted by the beauty beneath the surface.

This extraordinary destination offers relaxation and adventure in equal measure, making it a must-visit location for travelers.

THE PORT IN NUMBERS

To May, Port of Progreso has received a total of 124,520 visitors arriving on our coast by cruise.

The top 6 destinations in the state of Yucatan have seen more than 46 thousand passengers jointly, with most preferring to spend the day at the beach.
